

Maître Clément

WORLD TAI-JITSU FEDERATION COMUNIQUE

Condolences for the passing away of the Swiss Master Jean-Pierre Clément

The WORLD TAI-JITSU FEDERATION wishes to express its most heartfelt sorrow for the passing of Master Jean-Pierre Clément, 7^o DAN in Tai-Jitsu, and sends its warm feelings of support to his family, pupils and friends, especially to his instructors and friends Alexandre Boulgak, 4th DAN and Laurent Husson, 3rd DAN, who stayed with the Master to his last breath, when he died in their arms in an atmosphere of deep respect and friendship.

The president of the WTJF, its members, technicians and athletes feel as their own their sorrow for the death of Master Clément, who devoted his life and efforts to defend and extend the virtues and values of Martial Arts, and specifically Tai-Jitsu, with the honesty, resolution and conviction he showed in all his actions and his deep gaze.

Master Jean-Pierre Clément was a member of the WORLD TAI-JITSU FEDERATION since its establishment, and he'll be warmly remembered for his humane values, his technical and pedagogical prowess and the quality of his personal commitment, as well as the excellent legacy of his teachings, embodied by his pupils Alexandre and Laurent, true heirs to his spirit and technique.
